

Yes, I believe New Jersey's version of the do not call should conform to the federal law. It is unfair to have 50 or more laws for the same purpose. For once one standard should be the norm, and those who can not conform should not be allowed to deviate either way. Let's try and make life simpler not impossible.